Building plot first row at the sea

In one of the most beautiful bays in Adriatic we offer a building plot with planning permission for a family house. The bay is sandy and a focal point for yachts in summer. A dream location especially for boaters. Very rare that there is a property offered. One plot has 785 m² and on which a house has been approved. The second plot will have a size of 1,305 m² after the division. That too is buildable.
