Four apartments in first row by the sea

The island of Pag is one of the most fascinating islands on the Croatian coast and is known for its unique landscape, rich culture and traditions. The island is connected to the mainland by the Pag Bridge, which has played a key role in promoting regional tourism for over 50 years. The island of Pag offers a wide selection of beaches for every type of visitor.

Here a house with four apartments is being built. The house has two floors and on each floor there are two apartments.

Each apartment has a living area of 94.48 m², including a terrace, two bedrooms, a large living room with kitchenette, a bathroom and a toilet. On the sea side there is a heated swimming pool. Each apartment has its own parking space.
